Dear Mr. Barry-Walsh,

I must apologise for not replying sooner to your letter of the 16th May, but, what between a rather nasty cold and a run of visitors from Ireland, I was not able to write and fix an appointment.

If it is convenient to you, I could arrange to meet you on Friday evening next if you would phone me (Temple Bar 4321, Extension 253) and fix a time and place. On the other hand, I could see you for an hour or so any day this week or next - Fridays excepted - by, say, the Law Courts at about 12.45 if this would be more convenient. However, perhaps you will ring me and let me know what you can do.

Hoping you are not finding the heat too much at the moment!

Yours sincerely,

P. Keary.
